DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 20-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The claims are directed to a method or process for converting a gain index signal representing a desired dB value from a set of dB values, i.e. a number, to a linear gain signal, i.e. another number, via a mathematical algorithm. The claims are not limited to a practical application of the mathematical algorithm because the result, i.e. the linear gain signal, is not a useful, concrete and tangible result. More specifically it is not a tangible result because it is not a real-world result. Also, the claimed invention does not physically transform an article or physical object to a different state or thing because the transformation is merely a data transformation.

Relative to applicant's remarks the mere labeling of the signal as an audio signal does not provide a practical application.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-19 are allowed.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
